

From Lovingkindness To Wisdom

Roadside Assistance for the Spiritual Traveler

Come to Congregation M'kor Shalom for an amazing weekend retreat with contemporary author and scholar, Rabbi Rami M. Shapiro
February 24-26

Join us for an extraordinary spiritual journey with Rabbi Shapiro, one of the most creative figures in contemporary American Judaism. An award-winning poet, liturgist and essayist, his prayers are included in worship services across the denominational spectrum of American congregations.

- Friday, February 24 6:30 pm Kabbalat Shabbat Service, Dinner & Discussion
"Lovingkindness — What does it really mean?"
$18 per person in advance for dinner.
- Saturday, February 25 8:45 am Torah Study
10:15 am Shabbat Morning Awakening Service
11:45 am Luncheon & Discussion
Chochma (Wisdom) & "The Divine Feminine in Our Midst"
Advance registration requested.
7:00 pm Havdalah, Conversation & Elaborate Dessert Buffet
Teachings of Wisdom in the Torah
$18 per person in advance; $20 at the door.
- Sunday, February 26 10:30 am A Day In The Life
A teen only (Grades 10-12) event on applying teachings from the Torah to the most urgent issues in a teen's life.

To reserve your place or for detailed information about these stimulating events, please contact the synagogue office at 424-4220 or MainOffice@mkorshalom.org.

Come get inspired with us!

As a Reform congregation committed to supporting greater community health and wellness, we are honored to offer this exciting spiritual journey with Rabbi Shapiro. Please join us for any or all of these creative worship services and thought-provoking discussions. We look forward to meeting you.

850 Evesham Road • Cherry Hill, NJ 08003
(856) 424-4220 mkorshalom.org

This weekend is underwritten by the Helen & Leon Weinberg Scholar-in-Residence Endowment Fund.