Holocaust Studies Series: Staying Alive

presented by

Larry Glaser

Based on the book,
Survival in Auschwitz by Primo Levi

Primo Michele Levi (31 July 1919 – 11 April 1987) was a Jewish-Italian chemist, poet and writer. He is best known for If this is a Man, published in the U.S. as Survival in Auschwitz, his account of the year he spent as a prisoner in Auschwitz. It has been described as one of the most important works of the twentieth century.

Larry Glaser is uniquely qualified to discuss this history: he teaches in the Holocaust and Genocide Studies Program at Stockton College.

“I live in my house as I live inside my skin: I know more beautiful, more ample, more sturdy and more picturesque skins: but it would seem to me unnatural to exchange them for mine.” Primo Levi
